

called beauty

tempo 128 | 6/8 | straight

intro:

F#m7 E D D A/C# E/B A A

verse 1:

F#m/A E/G# D D A E/G# A A da- ily i could look at the gold and the fine fine silver F#m/A E/G# D D A E/G# A A A/G# A/G# with which You have adorned my arms and neck and fingers prechrs: A E/G# D D A E/G# D D

so i was called beauty in the eyes | these gifts assured me You were mine so i was called beauty in the eyes of my God and the angels

chorus: A E F#m D
yet i sold all the jewels that You gave to me
A E F# D
and used all the cash on other lovers i'd see
A E F# D
hoping that none would discover this feat, D E/G#
of the muck and the mire i'd continue to feast

intro:

verse 2 (twice as long as verse 1):

daily i could take in the scent of the fragrance You've sprinkled on me and all the clothes made of cashmere You give cause' You call me lovely daily i could look at how fair i was because of You instead i'd forget what You've given and living for suitors i'd choose prechorus:

chorus: F#m F#m F#m F#m D D D D continue to feast i'd continue to feast bridge:

F#m F#m D D
do not spare the rod how i long for faithfulness
F#m F#m D D
tell me once again of Your grace and woo me in F#m F#m D D
let not these lovers be more attractive than You God - D E D/F# E/G# D/A E/B D E/G# remind me of love, remind of You, remind me of love, remind of You, F#m F#m D D F#m F#m D D
Jesus a - l - l of You

outro:

A E/G# D add2 and add #4
still i remain treasured in the eyes
