

do not follow your heart

C2 Cmin(add 9) G
i've trusted in what i thought would lead me right
A7 D7
discovered i was good at believing lies.
G F2 C2 C2
i end up exchanging life for that which disappoints
G F2 C2 C2 Am7 A7 Am7(b5)
and i can't seem to shake this tendency, tendency, tendency. will you please?

do not follow your heart, if it means you're going to settle when you know there's something better now
G B7 C2 D7
you'll be falling apart, don't you keep holding the lesser when you know it's going to let you down
G B7 Em7 C2
you are leaving your mark, what you want them to remember when you're gone and can't pretend Am7 Am7(b5) G
anymore... what you've loved and you've lived for.
