

product of culture

tempo 138 | 6/8 | straight

intro: Bbm Gb Db Gb F7

verse 1:

Bbm Gb
she's a product of culture with her body all covered Db Gb F7
with logos set in motion by the walk that she's learned Bbm Gb
on the shows of television gaining attention is her mission
Db Gb F7
being the center of their vision and the subject of their thoughts

prechorus:

Gb2 Ab
i wish her father would have told her before she went and sold her Bbm Ab Gb2 Ab
body to the ones sitting behind a lit-up screen
Gb2 Ab
i wish her father would have told her over and over Bbm Ab Gb2 Ab
that she is beautiful that she is worth much more Gb2 Ab Gb9 Gb9
than an object of some fantasy – some sick dream

chorus:

Db Db Gb9 Gb9
find me a reason why she doesn't cry
Db Db Cb9 Cb9
when her skins mostly covered up by cameras and lights
Db Db Gb9 Gb9
i want to find her a reason not to trust her eyes Bbm Gb Ab Bbm Gb9 Db Gb9 F7
when they lie and tell her to be dissatisfied

verse 2:

she's a covered up princess she would never have the inkling that a King would one day love her with a splendor as the stars she'll be completely captivated, enamored by His face and kept completely safe in His strong loving arms

prechorus:

chorus:

interlude: Bbm Gb9 Db Gb9 F7
do not trust your eyes | for they lie | do not trust your eyes | just be satisfied

prechorus:
